MILITARY OFFICERS ORDERED TO REPORT.

Action of Leading Democrats--Rumors of Secret Enlistments--Garcelon to Reply to Morrill.

PORTLAND, Maine, Dec. 31.—The Advertiser says a conference of the the leading Democrats of Portland has agreed that the Governor and Council must be cordially sustained and that the first business of the Legislature must be to admit those elected who have not received certificates and that those views will be urged upon the Democratic State Committee which meets here to-night after the mass meeting.

OFFICERS IN CONSULTATION.

BANGOR, Dec 31.—C. B. Morton, of Augusta, member of the Governor's staff, came in on the evening train with special orders signed by the Adjutant General, ordering Lieutenant Colonel Daniel White, commanding the First Regiment of Maine volunteer militia and Major Melvin Folsom, of the same regiment to report at the Adjutant General's office in Augusta at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of Wednesday, December 31st, by order of the Governor and commander-in-chief. Reports are current that agents of the the Governor and Secretary are enlisting men in various parts of the State to form a military force at the opening of the Legislature at Augusta.

RATIFICATION MEETING.

FIDDEFORD, Me., Dec. 31.—The citizens of Biddeford favorable to sustaining the course of Governor Garcelon and Council last night held one of the most enthusiastic meetings that has been held here for many years.

FRAMING A REPLY.

AUGUSTA, Dec. 31.—Governor Garcelon is to be engaged at a late hour to-night framing a reply to Morrill. He states that it will cover all the points suggested.

When the guns and ammunition sent from the arsenal at Bangor arrived to-night, there was quite a crowd at the depot, but there was no disturbance. They were taken to the State House.

BOSTON, Dec. 31.—A special dispatch from Augusta says: The Governor agrees to submit certain of Morrill's questions to the judgment of the Supreme Court. The reason why all the questions will not be submitted is because there is such a mixture of fact and supposition that they would not be proper papers to submit.

AUGUSTA, Me., Dec. 31.—The military officers summoned from Bangor, had an interview with the Governor to-day in reference to an inquiry concerning the calling out of the militia companies should they be needed. The officers promised to obey the orders of the Governor as long as he is in office. The Governor spoke in strong language in regard to calling out the military.

LATER.

AUGUSTA, Me., Dec 30.—In accordance with the suggestions made in the letter of Mr. Morrill, Governor Garcelon prepared and sent to the Supreme Court this afternoon certain questions of law covering the essential points of Mr. Morrill's communication. No correspondence will be had with Mr. Morrill, and the questions are not to be made public until received by the court. Mr. Gould, the Governor's legal adviser, says that the constitution authorizes the submission only of questions of law, and not of facts, to the Supreme Court.

Relief For Irish Distress.

DUBLIN, Dec. 31.—The fund raised by the Duchess of Marlborough for the relief of the distress in Ireland, now amounts to £8,300. Dr. McE. Villey, coadjutor of the Archbishop of Tuam, in acknowledging the receipt of £1,000 from the churches of Cardinal Manning's diocese, in England, says no amount of private charity can cope with the approaching famine in Ireland, and that a system of remunerative public works can alone be effective.

An Exchange Jubilee.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 31.—There was no business done at the corn and flour exchange to-day. Immediately after the first call, and when a meager portion of the members had taken their places in the ring the doors opened, and the Fifth Regiment Band marched in and that precluded all business operations. Speeches were made by many prominent members congratulatory of the present general prosperity of business and all the national songs were rendered. There was nothing done in any of the markets.

The Diamond Discovery.

LONDON, December 31.—Mr. Maskelyne, of the mineral department of the British Museum, has thoroughly tested the carbon crystals made by Mr. Maclear, of the St. Rollox chemical works, and thought to be a true diamonds, and declares they are nothing more than some compound of silica.

The Louisiana Constitution.

Death of Senator Houston.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 31.—The news of Senator Houston's death causes much sorrow. The capitol offices are all closed in respect to his memory. Governor Cobb and many prominent citizens will go to Athens to attend the funeral next Friday.

The Fire Record.

CINCINNATI, Dec., 31.—A Paducah, Ky., dispatch reports the Allard block entirely destroyed by fire. The Schis-and Company of Nashville failed, liabilities $200,000. Green, Dall & Company, of Louisville failed, liabilities $54,000.

Congressional Nomination.

ST. LOUIS, Dec, 31.—The Democratic Congressional Convention at Booneville yesterday nominated John F. Phillips to fill the unexpired term of Alfred M. Lay, deceased.

Recorder Hackett's Successor.

NEW YORK, Dec., 31.—The Board of Aldermen to-day appointed Frederick K. Smythe, Tammany Democrat, to the office of Recorder in the place of the late John K. Hackett. Smythe will only hold the office until the election next fall.

Death of the Count Joannes.

NEW YORK, Dec., 31.—George, the Count Joannes, otherwise George Jones, actor, died yesterday, aged sixty-nine.

Miscellaneous Foreign News.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—Teheran telegrams report that the Khan of Merv sent an embassy to the British authorities in Afghanistan, when orders were issued to proceed afterward to the court of the Viceroy of India.

A Vienna dispatch says that Russian Nihilists are circulating among the peasants a story that the Czar has issued a decree ordering the landed proprietors to divide their estates among the peasants. The peasants on the estate of Count Schouvaloff, in the Sergiovoko district, seeing that the Count was not taking steps for a division of his property, gathered at the Castle, seized it, expelled all the servants and sacked it. Two companies of soldiers ordered to disperse the rioters were received with showers of missiles from the peasants. Several neighboring communities joined the rioters, all of whom were armed.

A Buenos Ayres dispatch reports President Prado as gone to Europe and Senor Pierola is dictator.

ASHTON UNDER-LINE, Dec., 31.—The masters refused the application of cotton spinners for the increase of 5 per cent. in wages.

MADRID, Dec. 31.—Gonzales, the would be assassin of King Alfonso, who had been lying in wait about the door of the Royal Palace, fired from the corner of the sentry box. Gonzales did not make much resistance on being arrested and the guards had to protect him from the violence of the crowd.

Marriage of a Minister.

Charlotte Observer, 3 st.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's mother, Miss Lutia Andrews, a popular and amiable young lady of this city, was united in matrimony to Rev. W. P. McForkle, of the North Carolina Conference, now located in Craven county, in charge of the Craven Circuit. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Miller, of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Boshamer, of the Methodist church, in the presence of a select company of the bride's friends. The young couple left the city on the 4:20 train for Salisbury to visit relatives, after which they will go to the groom's home in the eastern part of the State. The bride leaves the city with the good wishes of very many warm friends.

"Gwine on to Libelia."

Charlotte Observer, 31st.

Day before yesterday evening a train of five or six wagons driven and occupied exclusively by colored people—men, women and children—passed through this city going in a southward direction. The vehicles were loaded heavily with household furniture chiefly. They made no halt, so far as has yet been learned, and in reply to inquiries as to where they were going, one of them said, "gwine to Libelia," and they went on.

OUR AMBASSADORS.

THE VALUE OF OUR FOREIGN MINISTERS.

Public Servants Supposed to be at their Posts But Fooling Away their Time at Home.

Springfield Republican.

In England and Russia the United Sates has no ministers resident, and has not had for six months, but gets along very well notwithstanding. Minister Noyes of Paris is, or was very recently, taking a trip in the eastern Mediteranean looking after the "commercial interests" of this country. Minister Goodloe, accredited to Belgium, and appointed 18 months ago, came home to attend the meeting of the National Republican committee, of which he is a membr, and is enjoying himself at home in Kentucky. Minister Dichman sent to Colombia in June, 1878, is back in Washington on leave of absence. At Athens, since the resignation of J. M. Read, who served his country without pay for the social position his place gave him the United States has had no minister, and needs none. Mr. Lowell it is reported, wants to come home because he finds so little to do, and Minister Kasso at Vienna, besides spending a large art of the year at home, is serving his country just now, not as minister resident, but as special envoy to Roumania whose independence he has recognized. The only important diplomatic business the country has had abroad during the last year, the negotions looking to an international silver conference was not intrusted to the ministers resident at all, but put in the hands of a special agent, George Walker largely because the politicians who have diplomatic places did not have the necessary qualifications for the work.

In China, where the country has real and most serious interests at stake, the state department has no minister at his post, George F. Seward, but the United States is worse off than if it had no representative at all, Mr Seward's official misconduct having been reported to one legislative chamber of the country which sends him, and being perfectly well known to the others of the nation to which he is accredited. Under these various circumstances absent ministers whose absence does no harm and the one minister of bad character who is reported to have negotiated a treaty, of about how much practical service is the costly establishment ove which Secretary Evarts presides with such ponderous secresy.

STATE NEWS

(Correspondence under this head is furnished by regular contributors to the News.)

FRANKLIN.

FRANKLINTON, Dec. 30.—Real May weather, making the people cough and sneeze out the cold of the last few days.

Trade is retrograding so fast that the merchants will part with their wares on almost any terms.

On the 23d Mr. Von Ray, of Wake, and Miss Florence Gill bade adieu to the unpleasantness of celibacy and got aboard Hymen's car, trusting to conductor Cupid to carry them through life's matrimonial journey happily.

On the 26th Mayor Beddingfield had lots of carriages, buggies, wagons, etc., under arrest for appearing before his office in an unseemly manner.

Rev. J. W. Cole preached in the Methodist church at Franklinton last night. The church was crowded and the congregation were pleased.

Last Saturday S. C. Vann, of Franklinton, purchased at public outcry, a portion of the late Benjamin Winston's tract of land. He gave about $700 for ninety acres.

The ex-sheriff of Granville, Major B. F. Bullock, Sr., was in town last week. He was looking well and in the finest spirits. May he live long, for he is a gentleman of the olden type—one of nature's noblemen.

A few nights since the Williamson family (colored) gave a concert in Franklinton. There are fourteen of the children, and every other one was born blind. One of the men is a perfect orchestra, for with his mouth he can produce sounds like a banjo, guitar, French-harp, organ, Italian harp, and the quartet together can put a cornet band to shame. W.

GRANVILLE.

WILTON, Dec. 30.—The weather is rather warm to be pleasant, although from last Friday until Sunday night was the coldest weather this season.

Since the Christmas holidays trade has been very dull, but let that be dull or lively the loving swains in Granville marry just the same, and this month has been very prolific in the amatorial and conjugal business. There have been about seventy-five marriages, and perhaps there will be more before New Year's day.

The Rev. John W. Cole, a young Methodist divine, preached a sermon at Banks' Chapel last Sunday that swayed his audience at will. They would first be in smiles and then in tears.

As for the recent social gatherings it would be a waste of space to undertake to record them, so numerous have they been.

HOME AGAIN.

Last Wednesday Mr. Thomas Young Allen arrived from Texas, where he resided for several years. Although this was an unfavorable crop year out there, he gives the following as the productive capacity of the soil with ordinary seasons: Eight barrels of corn per acre, five hundred pound bag of cotton without any fertilizer, five hundred bushels sweet potatoes, twenty bushels of wheat to one sown, and tobacco the largest he ever saw. He brought home a sprig of prairie grass grown on the Red River bottom, nine feet and two inches high. Myriads of cattle can be raised without a cent's cost, except paying the herders. The cattlemen realize a profit of from fifty to seventy-five per cent.

WAGES.

Farm hands get from $15 to $20 per month, and each hand cultivates fifty acres of land with the sulky plow. No hoe work is done. Cow boys get from $20 to $25 per month. They have but few American horses but use the Indian pony or Mexican mustang, which are wild in droves on the plains. The way they catch is by throwing the lasso over his head, they then put a rope halter on him and tie it to the tame horse's tail. He then draws the wild horse along at his will, and even should the wild horse lie down he is drawn on by the tail of the other just the same. A horse will draw another one four or five years old in that way. If a beef is killed away from the ranch it is tied to the tail of a horse and drawn in. They have but three

A HORSE

WINDS.

there; north, south, and Gulf wind. In the winter when the "norther" is blowing they stay in doors. In June they wear overcoats; the south wind is always a warm one, the Gulf wind is a warm damp one. Mr. Allen was traveling one day when the "norther" was breezing over the Lone Star, and about the time he entered a lane that was seven miles long the wind blew off his hat and he run his horse at full speed for two miles before he could overtake it. Old boreas was doing his duty then, and he generally holds out from twelve to forty-eigh thours. Johnston county must be located over a place, for while they were turning over sod last summer the heat under the surface would in one day make a plow point, that was made of steel, and chilled as hard as a rat-tail file, as soft as pewter, and a blacksmith told Mr. Allen that they would sometimes fuse in the ground. The way the Texans manage to evade the prohibitory law is they just swing out this sign printed or painted in large letters: "The Blind Tiger." In the front room there is nothing but one-half a wheel discernible, the other half being in the back room. You walk up to the wheel and throw your money on it and turn it half round and sing out: "Whisky straight." The wheel in a moment turns half round again and there is your "blind tiger."

Immigration to Texas is quite considerable during the fall and winter, as from five hundred to one thousand a day arrive at Palestine. At this rate, in a few years it looks like Texas might be very well populated. Week before last Mr. James Ball arrived from Georgia to visit his relatives in this county, whom he had never seen. His father, John Ball, left this county about thirty years ago penniless. He now has three thousand acres of the pineries in southern Georgia, and is also running a large country store and several turpentine distilleries. Mr. Ball designs stopping at Goldsboro on his return for the purpose of hiring a hundred or two hands to work in his pine orchard. This shows what industry, energy and pluck will do.

EDISON OUTDONE.

A Machine That Blackens Boots and Hauls a Freight Train.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

"I am willin' to admit," said Grandfather Lickshingle, "that Mr. Edison has invented a wonderful invention."

Several members of the family arose and started toward the door.

"I was well aware," continued grandfather, without changing his tone, "that some persons resist any attempts at enlightenment on scientific topics, an' I therefore locked the door and put the key in my pocket. When I was a young man I was a great hand for experimentin' at one thing an' another, an' spent about all my surplus wages in workin' on a new light. I didn't fool aroun' with electricity, but went right for the planets. The sun, moon and stars, the real source of all light and heat, was what your grandfather tackled. I will give you the results themselves, an' then you will see that Mr. Edison is a tolerably small specimen."

"Your light wasn't superior to the electric light?"

"Wasn't eh? My light was as much ahead of Edison's as a house afire is ahead of a lightnin' bug. Young ladies could take my light and see their future husbands as plain as day."

"That was certainly very remarkable."

"Alongside of my light a streak of lightnin' had no more color to it than a rail fence, while a couple of small boys smokin' cigar stubs lit from my illuminator looked like a torchlight procession."

"It must have created a sensation in the scientific world?"

"Yes, an' in the literary world, too. It knocked light readin' forty ways for Sunday. By attachin' a ten-cent dufunny to your burner it 'ud generate a power that could be applied in any direction under the shinin'sun. It 'ud run a washin'-machine, iron the clothes answer the door-bell, carry in the coal, run errands—"

"Grandfather, ain't you mistaken?"

"—blacken your boots; cut your corns drive home the cows an' haul a freight train."

"What has become of your wonderful light, grandfather?"

"Right there you will have to excuse me. Suffice it to say I have it stored away in a safe place, an' at the proper moment I will spring it upon the country again. I will give you a pointer as to time to sell Edison stock short, an' if you don't retire worth more than the king of the Cannibal Islands don't blame it on your grandfather."

Beavers Cause a Deadly Scourge.

American (Ga.) Recorder.

The beaver was hardly known in this section before the war, but within the last decade they have become so numerous as to be a positive curse in some neighborhoods. Those acquainted with the habits of this ingenious rodent know what powerful dams they throw across a stream, obstructing its waters and thereby causing overflows, killing all the timber, crops and vegetable matter on the land. Many attribute the deadly scourge, hemorrhagic malarial fever, an annual scourge of some localities, to this cause. Trapping these animals has become quite a brisk business in the last few years to the initiated. The pelts are valuable and sell rapidly in this market for $2.50 to $3, and the flesh is used for food, though it is rather coarse and strong. Last week Mr. John H. Whitaker caught twenty-one on a single stream.

An Important Step for Charlotte.

Charlotte Observer 31st.

At a called meeting of the board of aldermen held yesterday afternoon, a communication was read from Oates Bros. and others setting forth that they proposed at an early day to erect a cotton factory within the city limits and asking exemption from city taxes for ten years, on the ground of mutual benefit. The request was unanimously granted. It has been known in the city for some time that the Messrs. Oates and others have been contemplating the inauguration of such an enterprise, but the announcement made above will be received with pleasure, as it marks the first step in this direction. The unhesitating action of the board of aldermen in the matter will doubtless meet with universal approval.

A Badly Slandered Set of Men.

Kinston Journal.

In the overhauling of the Jones county clerkship muddle, there was found in the office a fee of $30 due Manly and Haughton for services rendered numbers of years ago. It is not generally understood that lawyers are so remiss in getting in their fees. This goes to show that they are a badly slandered set of men.

No More Hard Times.

If you will stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style, buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing, get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of employing expensive quack doctors, or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, but put your trust in that simple, pure remedy, Hop Bitters, that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see good times and have good health. THE MAINE MUTINY.

A VETERAN POLITICIAN IN SEARCH OF LIGHT.

The Hon. F. W. Bird Inquires "What is the Law?" and Answers the Question Himself.

Boston Herald.

From the beginning of the controversy relating to the action of the Governor and Council of Maine, I have waited patiently in the hope and expectation that some one would point out the law or laws—constitutional or statutory—which Governor Garcelon and Council have violated. I have waited in vain. Hannibal Hamlin is a fair lawyer. Baker and Baker are reputed to be good lawyers. The Republican party of Maine has in its ranks, throughout the State, many able lawyers. I have looked to the Daily Advertiser and other Republican or Independent newspapers for chapter and verse of the laws of Maine, the violation of which justifies the clamor of Hamlin, Blaine and company. Instead of this, they have given us column after column, day after day, of violent harangues against the "outrageous acts of Gov. Garcelon and Council." A series of popular meetings have been organized throughout the State—the most inflammatory appeals to passion and prejudice have been made, all tending to arouse political hate, violence and blood, which could end only in that direst of all public calamities—civil war. And they have succeeded. The first act, in what threatens to be a bloody tragedy, was enacted in Bangor on Christmas day, the anniversary of "The Prince of Peace," and all this for what? Until within a few years Hamlin, Blaine and company were absolute masters of the political situation in Maine. For 20 years Maine, "The Star in the East," was steadily and overwhelmingly a Republican State. Within a few years the popular discontent with the domination of this ring has been growing, until to-day Maine has a Democratic Governor. How shall Hamlin, Blaine and company recover their supremacy?

THE SHORT WAY FOR DEMAGOGUES

was to create an outrage. They have succeeded only too well. But, clearly, they are alarmed at the storm they have raised. At first they claimed the right to inspect the returns in the hands of the Secretary of State. Rebuffed, upon an appeal to a Republican judge, and checked by the evident reaction which is taking place in public opinion, they now seek to cover their retreat by referring the whole question to the Supreme Court. I regard this, specious as it is, to be the most dangerous and alarming proposition that has been made. Mr. Lot M. Morrill, in behalf of the Republican state committee, asks Governor Garcelon to submit the question of the legality of the acts of the executive department of the government of Maine to the consideration of a co-ordinate department of the government, that is, to the Supreme Judicial Court of the State. Mr. Morrill says, in his communication: "It is not doubted that the decision of the court would at once cause the member not entitled to the seat to retire, and the rightful member to be at once admitted. "Now, Mr. Morrill is too good a lawyer not to know that the Supreme Court of Maine has no right to give a "judicial decision" in a case of this kind.

The constitution of Maine provides (art. 6, sec. 3), "They (the supreme justices) shall be obliged to give their opinion upon important questions of law, and, upon 'solemn occasions,' when required by the Governor, Council, Senate or House of Representatives." A similar provision exists in the constitution of Massachusetts (chap. 3, art. 2); but our Supreme Court has taken occasion repeatedly to declare that "opinions" thus given are not to be regarded as judicial decisions; and that the court would be at liberty to arrive at different conclusions upon a full hearing of both parties in a controversy; and it must be so, or there is an end to the independent powers of the co-ordinate departments of the government. Our constitution declares (and also that of Maine), "The Senate shall be the final juge of the elections, returns, and qualifications of their own members." And the same declaration is made as to the House; and no legislative body, Senate or House, would ever surrender to a co-ordinate branch of the government to its very existence. Our own bill of rights (art. 30) declares that, "In the government of this Commonwealth * * * the judicial (department) shall never exercise the legislative and executive powers, or either of them, to the end it may be a government of laws and not of men." The constitution of Maine (art. 4, part 1, sec. 5), after prescribing the manner of elections, says: "And fair copies of the list of voters shall be attested by the selectmen and town clerks of towns and the assessors of plantations, and sealed up in open town and plantation meetings, and the town and plantation clerks, respectively, shall cause the same to be delivered into the secretary's office thirty days, at least, before the first Wednesday of January, annually; and the Governor and Council shall examine the return copies of such lists, and, twenty days before the said first Wednesday of January, annually, shall issue a summons to such persons as shall appear to be elected by a plurality of all the votes returned, to attend and take their seats. But all such lists shall be laid before the House of Representatives on the first Wednesday of January, annually, and they shall finally determine who are elected." Precisely the same provisions in regard to canvassing the votes for Senators are made in art. 4, secs. 3 and 4, of the same constitution.

Let it be understood that these are the provisions of the constitution of Maine, and no acts of the Governor or of the Legislature or of the Supreme Court can set them aside. Under these constitutional provisions, the Governor and Council have given to certain gentlemen certificates of election as Senators and Representatives, and no power on earth can legally prevent those gentlemen taking their seats in the branch to which they are declared by the constitutional authorities to be elected; and, after each branch of the Legislature is organized, it shall determine for itself who are elected. There is but one course to be pursued in Maine. The two branches of the Legislature must meet, in accordance with the certificates of election issued by the Governor and Council, and each branch must be organized by members holding those certificates. Every man who feels that he has been wronged by the decision of the Governor and Council has the right to petition for redress. Full hearings must be granted; or refused at the peril of the majority refusing them. If the majority counted in by Governor Garcelon refuse to do justice, that fact, upon a full hearing of both sides, will appear; and nothing can save the party thus outraging justice from annihilation at the next election.

The Yarboro.

The Dr. has entered upon a new lease of life, or rather a new lease of this renowned hotel. This is his New Year's announcement. Situated in the heart of the city, convenient to all the business places, managed by careful hands, it has a hold on transient travel that cannot be easily shaken. And the Dr. prides himself on his holiday dinners, and Lewellen plans out a menu a yard long and grumbles because the guests cannot by any known means manage to do justice to every article printed thereon. But an invitation is extended to all to visit the house on the first day of the New Year and make a friendly call.

Taking Advantage of the Last Day.

Yesterday morning a marriage ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Edward Howland, of the M. E. Church, now retired from active duty on account of ill health. The contracting parties were Zaffie P. Ferrill and Miss Mattie Egerton, both of Oak Grove township. Quite an assemblage was present. The most curious portion of the affair was that the beautiful and impressive marriage service of the Church of England, in a modified form, was used, a prayer book having been procured from the Yarboro. The happy couple started out on life's journey with the best wishes of those present.

When you want to find out why John Clark, Jr., & Co.'s Mile-End spool cotton is the best, go to Yeargan, Petty & Company's, buy a spool and try it—you'll be convinced.

THE LATEST BOOM.

ANOTHER AVAILABLE PERSON FOR THE VICE-PRESIDENCY.

An "Old Line Whig" Nominates the Hon. Kenneth Rayner--His Personal Popularity.

Knoxville (Tenn.) Chronicle.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 13.—The Virginia friends of Judge Kenneth Rayner, at present Solicitor of the Treasury at Washington, are talking him up with great earnestness as an available candidate for the Vice-Presidency on the Republican ticket in 1880. They say that his great personal popularity in North Carolina would enable him to carry that State beyond peradventure, with the chances greatly in his favor of securing the electoral vote of Virginia. While my individual preferences are for Hon. Horace Maynard, it yet becomes my duty, as a party man, to examine into the availability of Judge Rayner, for it will behoove us next year to make a ticket which will command the party's strength, even if it does not secure accessions from the opposition. Mr. Rayner's friends point with pride to the ante bellum days when he so ably represented one of the North Carolina Districts for four successive terms in Congress. As a debater he took rank with the foremost men of his day; even Henry Clay not forgetting to allude to him as his "brilliant young friend from the Old North State."

And then, too, he came within two votes of being elected to the United States Senate from his native State, the persistency of his friends in standing by his fortunes preventing an election for nearly two months. In 1856, a dissatisfied portion of the Whig party held a convention in New York city and nominated Commodore Stockton, of New Jersey, for President, and Judge Rayner for Vice-President. But the true pride of the old Whig party was so thoroughly instilled within those gentlemen that they declined to lead the bolt, and heartily supported the regular Whig nominee, Mr. Filmore. In that campaign Judge Rayner took the stump in Philadelphia. He also made speeches in other Northern cities, but it was in the former city that he rendered the most brilliant service on the stump. Old Whigs of that city are wont to recount Rayner's brilliant efforts in that campaign, and they declare that had he gone to Philadelphia a week earlier, Pennsylvania would have been saved, as Mr. Buchanan carried the State by only a small majority of seven hundred.

The Catholics of the entire country would feel most kindly to the candidacy of Judge Rayner, for when he was scarcely twenty-two years old, he lifted his voice in a Constitutional Convention in North Carolina in favor of the adoption of a clause in the organic law removing all restrictions from the Catholics, and thus enabling them to hold offices of profit and trust in that State. That was one of the ablest efforts of his life, and called forth the warmest commendations from Chief Justice Gaston, and other North Carolina statesmen of that day. Although sixty-five years of age, Mr. Rayner has lost none of his ancient vigor, and is one of the most forcible writers and speakers in the country. His opinions as Solicitor of the Treasury are commended for their ability and terseness, and he has at all times aided Secretary Sherman's efforts to guard the Treasury against undeserving claimants. He is a profound lawyer, and his services as a Judge of the Alabama Claims Commission merited and received the warmest commendation from the Secretary of State, Hon. Hamilton Fish, and others of the ablest lawyers in the country. Southern Republicans have their Horace Maynard, and other good material from which to select a Vice-Presidential candidate, but it would be difficult for them to find a man who would enthuse the masses more effectually than would our old leader, Kenneth Rayner. I address you this communication, as yours is the most influential Republican paper in the South.

Faithfully yours,

OLD LINE WHIG.

The National.

Last week the NEWS had occasion to refer to this well-known house of entertainment in connection with the Christmas festivities. The Captain did well with his guests on that day, and he proposes to do the same to-day. So the lovers of good cheer, by which is meant a capital dinner, can avail themselves of the opportunity and drive away a fit of the "blues while looking at the table. Under the present management the house has improved wonderfully; all attention is paid to the wants of the guests, and the latch-string is always out. And now the Captain says, "A Happy New Year to all and call whenever convenient."

The Spanish legation received the following telegram Monday from Havana: "The Governor-General telegraphs from Jibara the surrender of the so-called General Belisario Peralta, with the rest of his command, composed of two chiefs, three commissioned officers and forty-six men, all armed."

Scarce and in Demand.

Wilmington Review.

Notwithstanding the fact that a large crop of sweet potatoes is said to have been raised in this section of country during the past year, they are very scarce in this market, and have advanced in price over twenty per cent. in the past few days. If there are any in the country, now would be a good time for the producers to forward them and realize handsomely on them.

Thirty Years Experience of an Old Nurse

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best Female Physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for thirty years with never failing safety and success by millions of mothers and children, from feeble infants of one week old to the adult. It corrects acidity of the stomach, relieves wind colic; regulates the bowels, and gives rest health and comfort to mother and child. We believe it the best and surest remedy in all cases of dysentery and diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac simile of Curtis & Perkins is on the outside wrapper. Sold by all medicine dealers. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

DAILY NEWS.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 1, 1880.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

THE chances are that the State Democratic Convention will be held in May.

IT is intimated by a Washington paper that many diplomatic appointments are made with the understanding that they are to be given up by a certain time. Such being the case how can it be expected that the interests of the country abroad are to be subserved. We copy an article relative to our costly diplomatic service from the Springfield Republican, which will give a fair idea of what our State Department is worth. Nine times out of ten our treaties are negotiated by those who hold special commissions for the purpose, while our ministers who have been appointed for party services are incompetent by reason of want of training. As evidence of the first assertion it is said that the United States has more ex-ministers and ex-consuls than any other country in the world. Such frequent changes cannot advantage this country to any great degree.

TO-DAY our colored citizens will celebrate the anniversary of Emancipation—the most important event, to them, in the history of the country. Their present bearing shows them to be peaceable, law-abiding citizens; there are, of course, the same as with other races, villains of all grades. They are not clannish, and always aid in bringing evil-doers to account for their misdeeds. They are growing more enlightened every day, and take pleasure in availing themselves of all educational advantages. It is, also, to the interest of the white people to aid them in every way. The fiat has gone forth that slavery shall not exist, and now it devolves upon us to assist in making them good citizens. This fact has been realized by the leading men of the State, and they join heartily in every movement of encouragement. We hope they will have a joyous time, and that their most prominent men will tender good advice and exert a wholesome influence over their less enlightened brethren.

NEW YEAR'S DAY.

To-day all the Christian world with the single exception of Russia, starts off on a New Year. To-day also commences the grand reformation, for vows of future good conduct will be registered, although three-fourths of them may be broken in a week's time. Still, this fact need not deter any one from forming good resolutions and trying to carry them out.

The last year was a most prosperous one for the country at large, and particularly so for the South. What crops lacked in quantity was made up in the higher prices received. The States are slowly but steadily working out their indebtedness to the interest as well as the joy of the tax-payers. There have been no heavy failures here, as in the North, and business is on a solid basis. For all this we have cause to be thankful.

But a new order of things is about to be inaugurated. Our waste water power will be utilized for small cotton mills; with the general introduction of the Clement attachment, increasing the demand for home labor, increasing the amount of money that will be left at home, and thereby increasing our local wealth—and all this is as certain to come as the sun shines—the New Year will be the commencement of a new reign of prosperity that will cause no regret for the happy times of ante bellum days.

And with the hope that our prediction will prove true; that our people will be in a happier condition than ever before, we say to one and all, "A HAPPY NEW YEAR!"

THE SITUATION IN MAINE.

As the wild excitement that has attended the action of Governor Garcelon and the Council relative to the granting of certificates of election subsides and a clearer view of the case is obtained, it will be seen that the Governor is in the right. The assertion that he acted unwisely, even if right, should never have been made by his enemies and least of all by his friends, and is unworthy of entertainment for a single moment. The Governor is bound by his oath of office to obey and enforce the laws, constitutional and statutory; from these he gains his legal power and authority; custom, tradition and precedent should have no weight as long as the laws are before him. And this should be conceded by his most bitter opponent, or else what becomes of the principles of a republican form of government?

We of the South take no active interest in the squabble beyond that of an important principle being involved—the same principle that was discussed before the Electoral Commission, and the adoption of which annulled the Democratic majorities in Louisiana and Florida and thereby seated Mr. Hayes in the Presidential Chair, namely, by denying certificates to members of one party who, although clearly elected by the popular will, still fail to secure their certificates because certain legal forms are not complied with, and thus are not legally elected, as the law provides that part or all of the returns from certain districts must be excluded in such case. The Republicans availed themselves of these provisions in Louisiana and Florida, and the Fusionists have done the same thing in Maine—it is merely turn about.

Neither party in Maine has seen fit to publish its case clearly, giving the law, stating the practice and reciting the facts The Governor and Council state that they have followed the law closely; the Republicans make a counter statement, but instead of citing the law they make the sweeping assertion that thirty-seven members-elect of the Legislature have been counted out, probably deeming it better policy to act in this wise rather than a present recapitulation of the facts should show to their party outside the State that in part the action of the Governor and Council was certainly legal and in part open to reasonable doubt. It seems to us perfectly clear that the political complexion of the Legislature was changed through the carelessness of both Republican and Democratic town officers, greatly aided by the peculiar requirements of the election laws and the decisions of the Maine courts, which have ruled almost uniformly (under Republican rule, too, be it understood) against counting a defective ballot, even when the intent of the voter was clear.

That the above is a fair statement is partially corroborated by the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, Independent Republican, which, while condemning Governor Garcelon, cannot justify its own course in so doing:

If it is true that the principles of law in Maine are so tortuous that Gov. Garcelon can "go behind the returns" to listen to affidavits as to whether or not returns were signed in open town meeting, as to what shape the ballots were, as to whether the selectmen were aliens or citizens, and to presume without a shadow of evidence (and contrary to fact) that separate signatures were all made by one person—if the Governor and Council can go behind the returns to ascertain such defects and make them the basis of the rejection of members-elect, and cannot "go behind the returns" to ascertain whether names in full mean the same persons as are named by initial—if this is the law, as laid down by the supreme court—why, there will be nothing to say but to give Gov. Garcelon the credit of discovering the worst law-trap that ever was sprung upon a self-governing people. A dozen living governors have walked over it safely before without wronging the State, but here is a learned doctor who in obeying the laws precipitates a revolution. It is barely possible that even the supreme court cannot make this wrong right. Merely passing opinions upon it will not make it right, unless those opinions lead to the seating of the chosen representatives of the people. The court may be able in some of these cases to make the wrong seem less arbitrary, and even to buttress it with the necessities of legal interpretation, but they are not likely to do so in all cases. To do so would require the principles of law to face both ways the same instant.

The supreme court will follow precedent and established principles of law. This is at once the weakness and the strength of the bench. It is relied upon with confidence to decide according to law; it cannot be relied upon to decide according to justice; if it could be, it would perhaps be more open to the suspicions of partisan bias. But in this case, the application of the law rightly interpreted will, we believe prevent some of the wrong which Gov. Garcelon attempts to shelter under law's wing. The rest must be prevented by the two houses of the Legislature, each of which has full power to go behind the returns, in the examination of the qualifications of members, to question the manner and means by which men were elected or defeated, to question for whom votes were intended, to ascertain why town clerks were so remiss as to send in unattested returns, disfranchising municipalities, and so on. There is one court before which all these questions may come, a court greater than the supreme court in the question of the qualifications of its own members,—what our constitution calls in no meaningless words the General Court. Between the supreme court interpreting the law, and the Legislature with its full powers to repair errors of technicality, and an aroused and intelligent public opinion, the people should get justice.

As an offset, however, to the Republican's grumbling the Hon. Frank W. Bird, of Massachusetts, a noted lawyer and writer as well as a veteran politician, takes up the cudgels in Governor Garcelon's behalf, and in an able letter to the Boston Herald reviews the situation and the existing laws, which we republish on the first page of this issue.

It should be remembered that the election of the next Governor rests, with the Legislature, and the political significance of the make-up rests on this fact, and in order that our readers will understand exactly the relative strength of the two parties we furnish the figures:

In the upper branch, the face of the returns gave 19 Republican senators and 12 Fusionists. The "count" gave 11 Republicans and 20 Fusionists.

The House, which in the coming election of a governor is a more important body than the Senate, consists in Maine of one hundred and fifty-one representatives. On tabulating the original returns, it appeared that the Republican candidates had received a majority of five thousand on the popular vote, although the Republican candidate for Governor had but a plurality, and that ninety Republican against sixty-one Fusionist representatives had been elected. Out of the ninety Republicans twelve were rejected altogether by the Governor and Council, and no certificates were issued to representatives from these districts, and in seventeen cases certificates were denied to Republicans and given to Fusionists by excluding a part of the returns from certain districts, which accordingly are represented, not as the voters expected and intended, by Republicans, but, as the voters did not intend and never expected, by Fusionists. These changes give the Republicans sixty-one representatives, the Fusionists 78 and leave twelve districts wholly unrepresented, so that the lower branch when it meets is not merely Fusionist instead of Republican as the people willed, but it consists of one hundred and thirty-nine members instead of one hundred and fifty one as the constitution commands.

Money Diggers.

Wilmington Star, 31st.

Yesterday morning, while Mr. J. F. Stolter, in company with his insurance agent, was examining into the damage sustained by his building by the fire of Sunday morning last, a little boy found under the house, near where the fire was first discovered, an iron rod, about five feet in length, such as is commonly used by "money diggers" in their searches after buried treasure. Mr. Stolter says he run off a party who were digging for money under this house on one occasion, and has had several applications from colored people since for permission to try their luck there. It is likely that some one was engaged in probing for money pots under the house (which is unoccupied) Saturday night, and that it was through some carelessness on their part that fire was set to the building.

"Let Them Have It."

Charlotte Democrat.

It is rumored that Northern capitalists propose to buy the Western North Carolina Railroad from the State and guarantee its completion. By all means let them have it. The concern has been and will continue to be a great expense to the tax-payers of the State, unless it is disposed of in some way.

We are sorry to learn that Governor Jarvis knows nothing about the above proposition.

One Experience from Many.

"I had been sick and miserable so long and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense, no one seemed to know what ailed me, that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural, but when I told them what had helped me, they said: 'Hurrah for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy.'"—The mother.

And I am lyke to Crye,
"Hurrah for ye Fruit!
Hurrah for ye Cooke!
And Hurrah for ye Pumpkynne Pye!"
—New York World.

Writing from Fort Custer to an Ohio paper, a soldier complains that enlisted men are perfect slaves in a garrison, and that some are even detailed to play with officers' children. That's no great hardship, if the children are pretty well advanced and are the right sex.

"A lady entering an omnibus or street car should bow slightly to the other passengers," says an authority on etiquette. Unless some one gets up and offers her a seat, when she should assume a rigidity from the base of the brain to the base of the spine which a six thousand mule power pile driver would go to pieces on without producing any effect.

The Philadelphia Item has a department devoted to lovers, and says: "A lady thoroughly competent to decide vexed love questions is in charge." The Boston Post thinks this "must mean Mary Oliver." Doubtful. More apt to be Miss Lotta Crabtree, whose method of settlement is far more popular among the girls. "Marry the fellows then shake 'em."

"And how is your neighbor, Mrs. Brown," inquired one nicely-dressed neighbor of another. "She is well enough, I suppose. I haven't seen her to speak to her for six weeks." "Why, I thought you two were on the most friendly terms." "Well, we used to be; but we've exchanged servants."

At a shoemakers' ball in Philadelphia a reporter says that "feet of every size, from a fine taper in white kid to pudding-shaped pedals in full skin, welted the wax on the floor in harmony with the music. They waxed warm and pegged away until late the next morning. It was a whole-souled affair throughout."

The ancient jibe against the young lady who was only "Piscopal pious," is now matched by the story of the interesting stranger at camp-meeting, who replied to the usual question asked by a young apostle of the emotional school: "My dear young friend, have you got religion?" "Oh, no, indeed, thank you; I'm a Presbyterian."

Is It Any Wonder.

In view of the immense amount of adulterated baking powders used by the masses of people in food, is it any wonder that there are diseased gums, decayed teeth and disordered digestion? To escape these evils, use Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, the only kind made by a physician, with great care.

Cuticura

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gualemen—I cannot refrain from adding my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have rendered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago, believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs —— of ——, Dr. —— of ——, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely healed. I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the CUTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

Yours, etc.,
STEPHEN CROWELL.
NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE

CURED IN ONE WEEK.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of Salt Rheum. The back of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day. E. P. DAGGETT.
MILFORD, ME., June 10, 1878.

VEST POCKET CURE

25 DYSPEPSIA 25

CLERGY & DOCTORS TESTE

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C. I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, (Bap.,) It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va. Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney. LL. D., Col. Va.
It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient without nausea.

Rev. B. F. Woodward, P. E., Na. Cont.
About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Falling in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va.
I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va.
It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in familie from indigestion. I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate.
This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our "National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.

He advised his brother physicians to use it in preference to anything else for kidney diseases.

Guilty of Wrong.

Some people have a fashion of confusing excellent remedies with the large mass of "patent medicines," and in this they are guilty of a wrong. There are some advertised remedies fully worth all that is asked for them, and one at least we know of—Hop Bitters. The writer has had occasion to use the Bitters in just such a climate as we have most of the year in Bay City, and has always found them to be first-class and reliable, doing all that is claimed for them.—Tribune.

No More Hard Times.

If you will stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style, buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing; get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of employing expensive, quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, but put your trust in that simple, pure remedy, Hop Bitters; that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see good times and have good health. See another column.

A Card.

All who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F. BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anæmia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

Advantages Decided.

The advantages in the use of Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts are decided, as they are put up in bottles of full measure; made from the true fruits and aromatics, without poisonous oils or ethers, pure and true.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Cough, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, and is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

Good Living.

The secret of good living is of vast importance to all mankind. Every good liver knows this—but when the liver is bad, then take Rosadalis, the great Southern Remedy, and Mott's Liver Pills. They are sure to restore you to health.

Well Known.

As it is known that Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts are not made up from chemical poisons, but natural flavors, delicate and grateful to the most cultivated palate, they are growing rapidly in popular favor. It is only necessary to try these flavors to be convinced that they are fine and pure.

The Best Thing Out.

KNOW THYSELF

THE untold miseries that result from indiscretion in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; or SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to Jos. S. Fisher, president; W. I. P. Ingraham, vice-president; W. Paine, M. D.; C. S. Gauntt, M. D.; H. J. Doucet, M. D.; R. H. Kline, M. D.; J. R. Holcomb, M.
